

Searching for a better way to commute? Let Metro lead the way.

Here's a great opportunity for you to try vanpooling. You can ride FREE in any King County Metro VanPool - up to three times per vanpool.

Not only is vanpooling fun, it can save you money. A 30-mile round trip with seven riders costs only about $59 a month - and because vanpools can use freeway diamond lanes, they save you time too. Plus, Metro vans feature air conditioning and individual reading lights - commuting has never been so relaxing! Now is a great time to give a vanpool a try. Use the tear-off ticket below to take part in this special promotion. Just contact the person listed at the top of your ticket to arrange your ride!

Want to vanpool—but don't know where to start?

If you are looking for a vanpool to try out, visit www.RideshareOnline.com on the Internet, or contact King County Metro Rideshare for ridematching assistance. We'll get some basic information about your commute and give you names and numbers of vanpools going your way. Many vans have extra room, you just need to call to arrange your ride.
